thirteen guns on leaving.

THE cases before the Police Court to-day were few and generally of no public interest. The only one of importance was a breach of the Opium Ordinance at Hung Ham, in which Acting Police Sergeant Butlin charged two men with being in possession of prepared opium without a license from the Opium Farmer contrary to the Ordinance of 1879. A penalty of $20 was imposed, or one month's imprisonment.

By a decree, dated the Hague, 21st October, 1879, No. 2990, for the prevention of importation of contagious diseases into the Netherland East Indies, all vessels from this Port and China bound for the Netherland East Indies require in future a bill of health granted or vised by the Netherlands Consulate in the port of departure and the same in order to be valid, has to be granted within 48 hours preceding the vessel's departure, whilst vessels arriving without a bill of health or such as have not been able to obtain a clean bill of health, will be subjected to the provisions of the decree.

THE returns of licenses &c., under the Harbour and Coasts Ordinance for the last two years are published in the Gazette. In 1878 there were 230 junk licenses issued; last year 261; 2,472 fishing licenses in the former year as against 2,592 in the latter: and 15,733 anchorage passes as against 14,628. There were in 1878, 1,845 monthly passes, and 17,891 temporary passes issued, as against 2,008 and 17,004 respectively in 1879. Of clearances there were in the former year 15,445 night and 24 day; last year 14,187 night and 15 d y. The total number of documents issued in 1878 was 54,366, bringing in a revenue of $20,045, and in 1879 the number of documents was 51,481 and the revenue $19,498.75, a decrease in the number of documents of 2,885 and in the revenue of $546.25.

H. E. Major-General Donovan held a parade of the forces in garrison this afternoon, but as the size and configuration of the Garrison Parade Ground are such as to prevent anything like a military display, the parade and its surroundings were necessarily of a limited character. The troops on the ground consisted of the 9th Battery, 7th Brigade, Royal Artillery under Lieut. J. A. L. Coker; and the 27th Inniskillings, under Lieut. Colonel A. D. Geddes; the whole being brigaded under Lieut. Colonel L. F. Hall, R.A. The Artillery manned a 4-gun battery of DRUGGISTS' SUNDRIES, NURSERY REQUI-7-pounder mountain guns and were drawn up on the right of the Inniskillings, who were in close column of companies. H. E. the Major General commanding, who was accompanied by the Brigade Major, Capt. T. S. St. Clair, 49th Regiment, and Lieut. A. S. Drummond, Scots Guards, arrived on the ground about half-past three o'clock and was received with the usual general salute. The Major General made a minute inspection of the parade, more especially of the battery, which is of a somewhat similar description to those which are employed amongst the mountains of Afghanistan. The troops marched past in open columns of companies with the Artillery leading, but as the space available for drill is so limited the battery was ordered to their quarters, when the 27th changed front and a second time passed the saluting post in the same formation, after which the regiment marched past in quarter distance column twice, on the second occasion at the double. The Field State was as follows :-Artillery .- I Field Officer, 1 subaltern, 3 sergeants, 1 trumpeter, and 28 rank and and 444 rank and file. The marching past was good, but the ground being on a slope it is not to be expacted it will reach the same perfection as on the level and extensive parade grounds of many of our military stations at home. -A series-of-field- evolutions, curtailed-nodoubt for want of space, were then gone through before the men were dismissed to THE steamer Menmuir has gone over to their quarters. The parade was witnessed by a good sprinkling of the different nationallties in Hongkong.
